A large, light gray number '61' is centered on a white background. Two thin, solid black vertical lines are positioned on either side of the number, creating a narrow central column. The number '6' is on the left and the number '1' is on the right.This image shows a blank sheet of white paper designed for handwriting practice. It features a solid black vertical line on the far left side, creating a margin. The rest of the page is filled with horizontal ruling lines. These include two solid black lines at the top and bottom, and several dashed black lines in between, providing a guide for letter height and placement. A faint grey circular shape is visible at the very top edge of the page.
